

VII. Setting up of Cage culture units for production and training in two geographical zones of Kerala for further demonstration and popularization of the technology.

The facilities installed by the current project will act as “on the field training amenities” for the local people of Southern, Central and Northern Kerala so that the entire State’s jurisdiction can be covered

