

Fellow of World Aquaculture Society

Dr. K. Dinesh, Associate Professor and Head, Department of Aquaculture, KUFOS was conferred the title 'Fellow of World Aquaculture Society' in recognition of his achievements in the field of aquaculture and service to the World aquaculture society. Dr. Dinesh received the award from Dr. William Daniels, President, World Aquaculture Society during the World Aquaculture Society Conference held at Montpellier, France in August 2018

Election as a Fellow of the World Aquaculture Society is an honor bestowed upon members of the World Aquaculture Society by their peers on behalf of their meritorious efforts to advance aquaculture (from the website of WAS www.was.org).

