

Maintenance of Museum/Aquarium

The AGK Menon Memorial Museum of Aquatic Animals established at KUFOS during the year 2016 houses a rich collection of finfish and shellfish specimens from marine and inland waters of India which are on display and attracting school and college students, researchers and the general public. The main objective is to impart education and awareness among them about aquatic bio diversity and to build up their competence and confidence.

